Advert Terms & Conditions

July 2011

The Terms and Conditions below are set by the Cossack Owners Club and should be followed as closely as possible. Any advert not complying with the Terms & Conditions may not be advertised.

1. Adverts are free to club members;
2. A fee of £5.00 will be charged to non members for any advert.
3. Adverts will stay on the web page for a maximum of 3 months after which the seller must re-notify the club of continuation or the advert will be deleted.
4. A continuation charge for non members will be a further £2.50
5. Payment for adverts can be made via PayPal* or personnel cheque drawn on a British Bank. Cheques must be cleared before advertising commences.
6. A small digital photograph of the motorcycle or item must be supplied, (if a photograph of the motorcycle/item is not given the advert will not be published).
7. An accurate description of the item must be supplied;
8. The asking price should be given but 'POA' and 'Offers Please' can also be shown;
9. Sellers must inform the club that a motorcycle or item has been sold as soon as possible after the sale;
10. Adverts will not be placed that compete with those in the Cossack Owners Club Regalia lists;
11. Sellers must supply a valid telephone/mobile number or email address.

The Cossack Owners Club will not take responsibility for the quality or working condition of any motorcycle or item placed on the 'For Sale' or 'CossackBay' pages as this is solely the responsibility of the seller. The club also has the right not to advertise any advert it thinks is inappropriate.
